

Basic Model Class Agenda

A 4-day instructor class

V.1 | 2017

Basic Model Class

Summary

Our online model class is a 3-hour per day, 4-day instructor led course. This class provides an in-depth review of the model creation process. In this class, your instructor covers all functionality and configuration required to use all the Model features.

Day One

- Introduction
- Cube overview
 - Overview of cubes
 - Overview of cubes vs relational reporting
- Technical specifications & authentications
 - Technical specifications
 - Authentication paths
 - Application navigation and concepts

Day Two

- Create SQL source model
 - Review of relational database
 - Model server
 - Data sources
 - Models
 - Selecting data
 - Pipelining
 - Calendar settings
 - Processing
 - Warehouse configuration
 - Process pipelines
 - Process model
- Cube review ZAP BI, BIDS, SSMS

Day Three

- Models – Including:
 - Excel/Text, OData, Unpivot
- AX 2012 cube creation
 - Review business case scenarios for AX 2012 R2 cube creation
 - Further discussion of model solutions
 - Create new Dynamics AX ZAP model using a solution
 - Model server
 - Data sources
 - Models
 - Partitions
 - Time settings
 - Pipelining
 - Company selections

- Analysis dimensions
- Calendar settings

Day Four

- Processing options
- Review of business case scenarios
- Implementation
- Security
- Logs & administrative screens
 - Overview of Manage Licensing
 - Overview of review of logs
 - Application settings breakdown

